SAFARIS OF CHARACTER

A HIDDEN GEM OF A CAMP, MENO A KWENA IS PERCHED ON A ROCKY CLIFFTOP OVERLOOKING THE BOTETI RIVER WITH FRONT-ROW SEATS TO THE COMINGS AND GOINGS OF THE WILDLIFE BELOW.

WHERE IS MENO A KWENA

20°19'24.51"S 24°19'6.99"E

Located on the western boundary of Makgadikgadi Pans National Park (MPNP), Meno is situated on tribal land overlooking the exceptionally scenic Boteti River. The camp is easily accessible from Maun - approximately a 2 hours' drive.

WHEN IS A GOOD TIME TO GO

Meno a Kwena is open all year round. The zebra congregate at the river during the dry season (but this cannot be guaranteed!) and game viewing is excellent in all seasons.

The below is rough guide to the seasons, but in April/May and October/November, the weather is variable.

Dry season: April – October

Green season: November – March

Please see our rates sheet for detailed information on seasons & pricing.

HOW DO I GET THERE

Direct flights to Maun from Cape Town and Johannesburg. Meno a Kwena scheduled transfers depart Maun International Airport for camp at 14h00 and depart camp back to the airport at 10h00. The drive takes approximately 2 hours, mostly on tarred roads with 5 kms on gravel. Self-drive options are also available. Alternatively, fly from Maun to Leroo La Tau airstrip, a 40-minute drive from Meno.

WHERE WILL I STAY

There are 10 tents - 2 doubles (king size bed), 6 twins (2 queen size beds) and 2 family tents (1 family unit has 1 x King-size bed & 3 x singles, the other has 1 x Kingsize bed and 2 x 3/4 beds), all ensuite with indoor and outdoor showers. Tents have standing fans and are solar powered with lighting and international charging plugs.

WHAT WILL I EAT

The chefs at Meno a Kwena create good, wholesome food and all meals are prepared on an open fire. Please let us know of any dietary requirements prior to arrival.
